BRAINERD DAY AT COUNTY FAIR, PEQUOT, SEPT. 20th

SPECIAL TRAIN ON M. & I. FOR FAIR

Woodhead Motor Co. and Other Brainerd Merchants and Farmers of Vicinity will Exhibit

Brainerd Red Cross to Have Exhibit, Youngest Knitter on Record to Knit for the Soldiers

The eleventh annual fair of the Crow Wing County Agricultural Society opened at Pequot Sept. 19 and will continue Sept. 20 and 21. The premium list far exceeds that offered any previous years and the exhibits are large, better and more varied. The officers of the association are President James Ingram, Vice President Glen Slocum, Secretary August C. Larson and Treasurer F. G. Schrader. The board of directors includes the officers named and Gardner Stevens, W. H. Cloud and K. A. Erickson.

The superintendents of the various departments are: Horses—Glen Slocum. Cattle—W. H. Cloud. Sheep, Swine—K. A. Erickson. Poultry—Gardner Stevens. Agriculture—F. G. Schrader. Women's Department—James Ingram, superintendent; Mrs. Ingram, supervisor. Forage—James Ingram. Concessions and Privileges—Aug. C. Larson. Collector of Privileges—August C. Larson. School Department—Mrs. Irma C. Hartley. Grounds—August C. Larson. Manufacturers' Machinery, Farm Implements and Vehicles—James Ingram.

The biggest day at the fair will be Brainerd Day, Sept. 20, when the attractions will make a particular appeal to the county seat and vicinity. There will be the special train on the Minnesota & International railway, leaving Brainerd at 8:30 in the morning and making stops all along the line to the fair grounds, arriving at Pequot at 9:20. Returning, the special leaves at 8 P. M., arriving in Brainerd at 8:50. In addition, scores of automobile parties will make the trip.

There will be the finest of exhibits games, baseball games, races, etc. A new Ford automobile will be given away. Brainerd merchants including John F. Woodhead Motor Co., H. F. Michael Co., Hall Music House and others will have exhibits and farmers of the vicinity will be largely represented. County Agricultural Agent E. A. Colquhoun attended the fair early this morning. Mrs. L. P. Hall of Bay Lake, interested in work of the Woman's Auxiliary of State Public Safety Commission, is at the fair today.

The youngest and smallest knitter in Crow Wing county, in fact it is believed in the whole country, will demonstrate her skill at the Red Cross booth at the county fair at Pequot on "Brainerd Day", September 20. This little miss will be attired in a knitted soldier's uniform, made especially for her and will be one of the attractions at the well appointed booth of the Red Cross workers. And she is some patriot, too. She allows that she "dus knits for sojer boys and not for Germans" and her pretty, childish face is all aglow with interest in her work. She takes it seriously and those who watch her chubby little fingers as they handle the knitting needles are advised not to laugh or in any manner discredit the "volume" of her completed work for if they do, it will be resented. Her name is ———, well, see the little lady for yourselves, you may know her.

Booth Nicely Arranged

The Red Cross booth is located in the newly constructed annex of the main building and will be one of the big attractions of the fair. Practical demonstrations in the work of the four departments will be made and the public shown how American women have risen to the emergency and just what they can do for the comfort of our soldiers and those of the allies at the front, in the hospitals and in every avenue of the great world war activities.

Surgical dressings and bandages, garments for soldiers, comfort kits and expert knitting will all be demonstrated at the Red Cross booth and it will be well worth while to visit it and see what is being done. Your dollars given to this splendid work are being put to practical use and you will realize this all the more after a visit to the booth.

Different Departments

The work of the Red Cross is divided into four departments, namely: Patient's clothing, hospital supplies, surgical dressings and knitting, the latter being a sub-department of the patient's clothing division. Special interest will center in the exhibit of knit goods and demonstrations in the same, although each division is of great interest and practical work is being done in the same.

The following ladies will be in charge of the divisions during the two days of the fair:

Hospital supplies—Mrs. R. A. Bese. Mrs. C. B. White, Thursday; Mrs. Harry Carlson, Mrs. Fred Parker, and Mrs. Ethel Parker Campbell, Friday. Patients' clothing—Mrs. George Keene, Mrs. E. O. Webb, Mrs. Thomas Smith and Mrs. H. L. Jones, Thursday; and Mrs. F. W. Wieland, Mrs. Charles Hoffman, Mrs. George Warner and Mrs. A. K. Cohen on Friday.

Surgical dressings—Mrs. F. A. Farrar, Mrs. Walter Courtney and Mrs. Jay O'Brien, Thursday, and Mrs. Walter Wieland, Mrs. H. G. Ingersoll and Mrs. Paul Clarkson on Friday.

Knitting committee—Mrs. C. D. Johnson, Mrs. W. A. Fleming, Thursday, and the Pequot ladies will have charge of this department on Friday.

Goods have been shipped and the booth is being arranged today and everything points to the Red Cross exhibit being one of the most interesting features of the fair. Mrs. J. A. Thabes, at the head of the Red Cross work in this city and county, is bending every energy to make the exhibit at the fair a success and is being ably assisted by competent heads of committees and individual workers who are giving their time and effort to the cause.

First Inspection

The first inspection of completed articles made by Red Cross workers in Crow Wing county was made by the committee today and a world of articles from the different branches and auxiliaries were carefully gone over. A detailed list of the same will soon be available and each chapter and branch given due credit for the same.

It is planned to have the first shipment of completed articles from Crow Wing county on its way to Washington by October 1 and auxiliaries are urged to send in their completed articles, in order that they may be checked and listed.

WILLIAM C. PITTS

Assistant attorney general in department of justice.

William C. Pitts, an assistant attorney general in the department of justice, planned the raid by United States officers on headquarters of the I. W. W. in many parts of the United States on September 5. He will be in charge of the prosecutions in case indictments are returned by federal grand juries.

GOODBYE TO SOLDIER BOYS

The boys called to the colors will march from the court house at 11 o'clock Friday morning for the train. The Brainerd City band will head the parade and the old veterans will be in line as an escort of honor. School children will be at the depot in scores waving their flags. The Parker & Topping Co. foundry will be closed all day, the men so voting. Stores of the city have been asked to close. The mayor's proclamation asked for a suspension of all work from 11 A. M. to 1 P. M.

There will be open house at the Chamber of Commerce on Thursday night, as the quota will answer roll call at the court house in the afternoon. Be prepared to make Friday, Sept. 21, the greatest patriotic day in the history of Brainerd.

American Steamer Sinks Submarine Shetland Islands

(By United Press) London, Sept. 19—An American armed steamer probably sank a submarine in a spirited fight southwest of the Shetland Islands. The American steamer encountered the submarine while the latter was engaged in sinking another merchant vessel and at a point somewhere off the Shetland Islands the American smashed the periscope of the U-boat.

More Money Now Needed for the Army

(By United Press) Washington, Sept. 19—Secretary Baker has submitted to the senate committee $287,416,000 additional estimates for the army. He explained the imperative need of the money and asked that it be included in the $7,000,000,000 urgent deficiency bill, the explanation being given that the estimates due to the requirements was not apparent when the regular estimate was given.

Secretary Baker's estimate forecasts a call for 500,000 more men for the national army soon.

(By United Press) Washington, Sept. 19—The house and senate conferees on the $11-500,000,000 bond bill and it is expected it will be ready for presidential signature Saturday. One-fifth of one per cent of the four billion dollar bond issue is allowed for advertising the expense of the sale. The conferees struck out the LaPollette amendment fixing the rate of interest on the two billion dollars war saving certificates at 4 per cent, leaving Secretary McAdoo to fix the interest rate.

Automobile Owners Must Economize Gasoline Used

(By United Press) Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 19—America produces 312,000,000 barrels of petroleum annually but uses 330,000,000 barrels in the same period. The reserve stock is sufficient to assure a supply for five years, according to President Bedford of the Standard Oil in a statement to the chamber of commerce of the United States in session here. He insists that automobile owners must economize in the use of gasoline.

Pope Makes Last Peace Proffer Three Years War

(By United Press) Washington, Sept. 19—The pope has made his last peace proffer according to official cables. He believes the war must go on for two or three years or until the full effect of America's power is felt and victory achieved or a hopeless deadlock is reached, the vatican realizing that peace or further negotiations being unavailing.

Germany is expected to initiate another peace movement this winter, the base of this being seen in the vague outlines of terms set afloat for the first time in Washington three weeks ago, which appear to be feelers. Diplomats in touch with the international situation say there is positive knowledge that Germany will move again to end the war before 1918.

BREAD TO GO HIGHER

Larger Loaf at Increased Price Is Prediction.

Speaker at Bakers' Convention Says Americans Will Not Be Compelled to Eat War Bread.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Because it is indigestible, is an economic falsehood and is not favored by Herbert C. Hoover, the American public will not have to eat war bread.

These were reasons given by George Ward of New York why the new mixture will not be served on this side of the Atlantic. His statements were corroborated by other bakers attending the convention of the National Association of Master Bakers.

"Bakers throughout the country have given away millions of dollars to an undeserving American public during the last six months," C. N. Power of Pueblo, Col., declared. "We have been using flour bought for $8 and $9 a barrel before the market went up and retelling bread for the same price. Now with flour higher or we must raise the price or stand a big loss."

"Bread will increase to 15 cents a loaf, but an increase of 35 per cent will be made in the size of the loaf." Power declared increased prices will be general, although varying in different sections.

SWEDEN IS NOT SATISFIED

Says Berlin Dodges the Issue in Telegram Incident.

Stockholm, Sept. 19.—The action of the German minister in expressing in a general way Germany's "keen regret for the embarrassments caused Sweden through the Buenos Aires telegram affair," but abstaining from any explanations seems to be regarded here as rather inadequate and unsatisfying. It is felt that Germany, in view of the predicament in which her indiscreet diplomats have placed Sweden, might have gone much further to help Sweden out of the embarrassment and might have acted without waiting an entire week after the publication of the disclosures.

REAL COAL SHORTAGE IS SEEN

Big Decrease in Production of Bituminous in August.

Washington, Sept. 18.—Reports to the Geological Survey on production of bituminous coal show a decrease during August at the rate of more than 3,000,000 tons a month and indicates that a shortage of coal this winter feared by many government officials may be a reality unless production shows a decided increase.

Indications are that while there will be sufficient anthracite for domestic consumption in the east, there may be an insufficiency of bituminous to keep industrial plants going at their present capacity.

CANADA TO CALL 100,000 MEN

Single Men and Childless Widowers To Be Included.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 19.—Unmarried men and childless widowers from 20 to 34 years old will be called to the colors under the military service act during the first week of October, it is believed here.

One hundred thousand will be selected from those reporting and of them 25,000 will go into training immediately. The remaining 75,000 will be called up in groups of 10,000 to 15,000 as they are needed.

(By United Press) Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 19.—Raymond Stevens of the United States shipping board warned the United States chamber of commerce delegates that within six to eight months all American coast wise shipping would be seized for vital over seas commerce.

Labor Commission to Russia.

Washington, Sept. 19.—President Wilson soon will sanction dispatch of a labor commission to Russia to clarify this country's attitude toward the war. The delegation will include representatives from various unions, miners, munitions makers and others. Each class will go out among Russian workers engaged in similar work and spread the gospel of unanimity and a common cause to fight the war to a successful conclusion.

German Proclaimed U. S. Patriot. Chicago, Sept. 19.—Gottlieb Traub, born in Germany, now an invalid on his farm near Elgin, Ill., is proclaimed by District Appeal Board No. 3 to be a genuine American patriot. Four of his sons, the only ones in a family of 15 children who are able to care for their father's farm, were drafted for the army. Traub urged them all to claim no exemption, but friends requested the appeal board to allow one son to remain at home to help. The request was granted over the protest of the father.

BIRD MOLTING

(Rev. William Lloyd Crist.)

Have you missed the song-birds for the past month or more? Have you wondered what has become of them? Did you think they had already left for their winter home?

After nesting season ALL birds renew their plumage. Many of our birds molt their body feathers twice a year, both spring and autumn. The bobolink and a few others have a complete molt in the spring. A wild bird molts in about one-half the time a caged bird does, and during the molting process are hard to find, and you will note that the birds disappear after nesting and in a few weeks appear again in a new dress. The transformation takes place in trees of deep woods.

In molting, one or two feathers fall out at a time. A feather will drop from each wing, and if you look closely, you will discover the new ones have pushed the old ones out. Their new costume is often entirely different from their old nesting garb. The scarlet tanager changes from a brilliant red body feathers to an olive green color. The gold-finch's brilliant yellow turns to a drab or light brown. This change is noted more particularly where the male is brighter in color than the female. But in the spring all the gay colors are resumed.

There are birds that change color without molting. The snowflake changes from a brownish white to pure black. In winter the meadow lark is brown, in the spring he becomes yellow and black.

Secretary of War Addresses National Convention at Atlantic City and Warns Against Cry for Heavy
War Profits.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 19.—Entire reorganization of the government purchasing system was urged by speakers before the war convention of American business men. The War Industries board, recently created, has failed to meet the situation, it was declared, by the lack of complete authority under the law.

Formation of a new government department similar to the British ministry of munitions was suggested by Waddill Catchings of New York, and others.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 19.—Secretary of War Baker, addressing leaders of American business, in the war convention of the United States Chamber of Commerce, here, said: "There must be no ifs nor buts, no crying for profits in the patriotic war program of American business."

"The waves breaking along this board walk bring messages from afar," he continued. "I seem to hear in their chords and strains the cries of drowning children, the moans of dying mothers, and detect in their watery voice the tales of bombs dropped on innocents from the air—of lives snuffed out in the mad battle of a monarch for territorial aggrandizement."

Must Respond to Allies.
"We must answer the cries of England and France and Russia that come to us on the waves. The waves must carry back our reply—Yes, ye free people of Europe, we are marching millions strong; our soldiers, our business, our industries, ALL WE HAVE, is pledged in this great burden you have been bearing."

"That is the message we must send. We are too close to the cradle of liberty to say anything otherwise. It is a message that cannot be effective unless you, of American business, join in the sending of it."

Lane Also Speaks.
In a scathing indictment of a Germany that seeks to master the world "with high explosives and low intrigue," Secretary of Interior Lane declared that America was making "full steam ahead in the war," and would continue fighting until the world had no cause to fear kaiserism.

Lane spoke at the opening session of the war convention of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. "We are determined of war. That is settled," he said.

"The American people have determined to resist the aggression of a Germany that broke her word with us, a Germany that sought to start revolution inside our own borders, a Germany that sought to bring enemies upon us from the outside while we were at peace with her, a Germany that in violation of her own word sank the ships that we sent to feed the starving Belgians, a Germany whose national policy was to teach each nation to distrust every other nation, whose military policy was to spread terror, whose naval policy was to prey upon neutrals."

A surprise party was given Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. M. De-Rocher, Jr. Eighteen ladies were present. She was presented with a beautiful wine set. In the card playing which followed, Mrs. Joseph Hebert won the head prize and Mrs. Wm. J. Lyons the second prize. A luncheon was served.

At the Best Tomorrow

A photodrama of the most powerful moral stimulus is "The Waiting Soul," the Metro-Popular Plays and Players production with Mme. Petrova as star, which will be seen at the Best theatre tomorrow. This five-act feature screen drama has been adopted by Wallace C. Clifton from Marion Short's fiction story. It was supervised by Aaron Hoffman and directed by Burton L. King.

Can a woman blot out an accusing past by means of good deeds? Will falsehood told by a mother influence her unborn child? These are some of the questions raised and answered in "The Waiting Soul."

Grace Vaughan, after a struggle with her conscience that reaches the very depths of her soul finds that confession to her husband, whom she supposes ignorant of her past life, is the greatest privilege she has ever known. Through it she reaches heights of serenity unrealized before.

WOMEN'S WOES

Brainerd Women are Finding Relief at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. G. W. Hall, 613 Third Ave., Brainerd, says: "I had frequent attacks of backache with dizziness. I left languid mornings and was caused inconvenience by the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills removed all these troubles."

GONE FOR GOOD

Over three years later Mrs. Hall said: "I can't say too much in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. The relief they brought has been permanent."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hall has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

TO COMPETE FOR PRIZES

Prizes aggregating $300 are being offered to teachers in the public schools of Minnesota for the best essay on the subject "Why the United States is at War." The money for the payment of these prizes has been contributed by a public spirited citizen of the state, who desires his name to remain unknown.

The contest is to be conducted by the National Board for Historical Service, a volunteer organization of historical scholars established at the time of our entrance into the war, with headquarters at Washington. This organization has arranged for a similar contest in a number of other states, and the winners of prizes in each state will be entered in a national contest for additional prizes.

A circular containing details of the contest and suggestions as to how material may be obtained, has been received at this office. Anyone interested in this contest can secure a copy of this circular by writing to Professor Solon J. Buck, Superintendent, Minnesota Historical Society, St. Paul, who has charge of the contest for the National Board. The essays, which must all be in by January 1, 1918, are to be judged by committees of prominent citizens of the state, whose names will be announced in the near future.

ELKS TO AID

Grand Lodge Announces Raising of $1,000,000 to be Used as Elks' War Relief Fund

At the annual meeting of the grand lodge Elks held in Boston on July 10, it was agreed to, without a dissenting vote to raise $1,000,000, to be used as the Elks war relief fund.

This fund is to be handled by a commission appointed by the Grand Exalted Ruler, and its first activities will be directed towards the establishment of base hospitals at the front, with the Red Cross societies' aid, but with the identity of the order's gift, and at all times preserved, and the flag of Elkdom at all times floating above.

Pursuant with this action of the grand lodge an assessment of $1 is to be levied for this fund and members of the local lodge have been so mailed notices by Secretary J. C. Higbee.

A good crowd gathered at the tabernacle on Sixth street last night and many evidences indicate that the interest is increasing in this union campaign.

The entire Bromley party seem to believe in and practice the religion of good cheer. While preaching Dr. Bromley's face is frequently lighted up with a smile that proves contagious.

"It is not irreligious to laugh," is one of his characteristic phrases. "Charlie" Wieand, as he delights to be called, is a veritable "Apostle of Sunshine," and those who enjoy music and want to drive dull care away, should reach the tabernacle by 7:15 P. M.

It is worth a lot to get up close and watch "Charlie" direct his large chorus.

Miss Irene McCague, with her pleasing voice and personality, is proving how helpful the ministry of song can be. Last night she sang the solo, "He Will Hold Me Fast."

Dr. Bromley took his text from Psalms 85:6, "Wilt thou not revive us again, that thy people may rejoice in thee." He spoke of the meaning of a revival to the community and said that it pays, even financially, in the community that will make the most of it.

The water and light board are working on the street lights and it is expected they will be ready to turn on the lights at seven o'clock tonight.

RESENT INTERFERENCE

German People Will Bring About Democratization.

Member of Reichstag Asserts Wilson's Answer to Pope Has Retarded Movement in Germany.

Stockholm, Sept. 19. — Herman Loebe, member of the Reichstag, who is in Stockholm, said: "While President Wilson's answer to Pope Benedict did not turn back the clock on the democratization movement in Germany, its effect was undoubtedly deplorable and was regretted by all the fighters for democracy."

"Millions of Germans, including myself," he continued, "agreed with Mr. Wilson on many points and share his views of democratization, but he must leave it to us, Mr. Wilson's dictation, in what we regard as purely our private affairs, is resented and has brought all Germans together against him."

Movement Growing Stronger.
"Our adversaries now sneeringly say, 'You're willing to dance to the tune of Wilson's pipe.' However, whatever form of government we have is our own business. The movement is not dead, but is growing stronger every month, but I am confident something will develop when the Reichstag meets."

"It is worth remarking that the center (the Catholic) party is with us on democratization. The center includes among its voters millions of working men who are for democratization."

DRAFT ARMY IS MOBILIZING

300,000 Civilians Start Journey to Cantonnments.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Marshaled for the last time as civilians, and under civilian authority, more than 300,000 men of the National Army will go forward to the sixteen cantonnments. The whole nation will be astir with the movement of the selective forces. The men represent approximately 45 per cent of the total quota under the first call from each of nearly 5,000 local boards.

Brotherhood Men in Valuation Protest.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Protests against the valuation by the Interstate Commerce Commission on several railroads were joined by the four chief railroad brotherhoods. In a brief filed in the Texas Midland Railroad valuation proceedings the brotherhood asserts that without a report showing the original cost to date "all the labors of the commission will have been in vain and the great expense of the undertaking will have been idly wasted. Public confidence in the result of the investigation will be destroyed."

Home-Reading Course For Our Citizen-Soldiers

(Issued by the War Department and all rights to reprint reserved)

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and directions. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States Army, to which this Course is merely introductory.

LESSON NO. 24.

ARMY COURTESY.

(PRECEDING LESSONS—1. Your Post of Honor. 2. Making Good as a Soldier. 3. Nine Qualities of a Soldier. 4. Getting Ready for Camp. 5. First Days in Camp. 6. Cleanliness in Camp. 7. Your Health. 8. Marching and Care of Feet. 9. Your Equipment and Arms. 10. Recreation in Camp. 11. Playing the Game. 12. Team Work in the Army. 13. Grouping Men into Teams. 14. The Team Leaders. 15. Fighting arms of the service. 16. Staff Branches of the Service—I. 17. Staff Branches of the Service—II. 18. Army Insignia. 19. The Army System of Training. 20. Close-Order drill. 21. Extended-Order Drill. 22. Guard Duty. 23. Getting Ahead in the Army.)

You are careful to observe the ordinary courtesies in your civilian life. You would soon make yourself offensive to all your friends if you were in the habit of passing them with a cold stare or a discourteous nod.

These customary rules of good breeding apply in a slightly different form in the army. There is the same reason for them in the army as in civil life. Courtesy helps to make the great army machine run more smoothly. It is the outward sign that the right relations exist among officers and men.

These right relations should be given expression both within the military camp and outside. "Courtesy among military men is indispensable to discipline; respect to superiors will not be confined to obedience on duty, but will be extended on all occasions." (Army Regulations, par. 4.) The obligation to show proper courtesy is binding upon officers just as well as upon men. The commanding general of the army is required to be courteous to you, just as you are required to be courteous to him.

Importance of Correct Forms.
Courtesy among military men is shown by speaking and acting in a respectful manner. It is shown also by using the correct form of recognition. This correct form when meeting or addressing commissioned officers is known as the military salute.

"In the old days the free men of Europe were all allowed to carry weapons, and when they met each would hold up his right hand to show that he had no weapon in it and that they met as friends. Slaves or serfs, however, were not allowed to carry weapons, and slunk past the free men without making any sign. In this way the salute came to be the symbol or sign by which soldiers (free men) might recognize each other. The lower classes began to imitate the soldiers in this respect, although in a clumsy, apologetic way, and thence crept into civil life the custom of raising the hand or nodding as one passed an acquaintance. The soldiers, however, kept their individual salute, and purposely made it intricate and difficult to learn in order that it could be acquired only by the constant training of all real soldiers received."

"To this day armies have preserved their salute, and when correctly done it is at once recognized and never mistaken for that of the civilian. All soldiers should be careful to execute the salute exactly as prescribed. The civilian or the imitation soldier who tries to imitate the military salute invariably makes some mistake, which shows that he is not a real soldier; he gives it in an apologetic manner, he fails to stand or march at attention, his coat is unbuttoned or hat on awry, or he fails to look the person saluted in the eye. There is a wide difference in the method of rendering and meaning between the civilian salute as used by friends in passing, or by servants to their employers, and the military salute, the symbol and sign of the military profession." (Manual for Non-commissioned Officers and Privates, sec. 6.)

Proper Way to Salute

In order to give the salute properly when you are without arms, first assume the position of a soldier (as described in a preceding lesson), or if you are walking carry yourself at attention. Look the officer you are to salute straight in the eye. When he is a few paces away from you "raise the right hand smartly till the tip of the forefinger touches the lower part of the head dress or forehead above the right eye, thumb and fingers extended and joined, palm to the left, forearm inclined at about 45o, hand and wrist straight. Continue to look the officer you are saluting straight in the eye and keep your hand in the position of salute until the officer acknowledges the salute or until he has passed. Then drop the hand smartly to the side. The salute is given with the right hand only." (Manual for Noncommissioned Officers and Privates, sec. 6) It will be well for you to practice this movement before the looking-glass and be prepared to execute it properly as soon as you get into uniform. It is one of the things that will help to mark you in the early days in camp as possessing the bearing of a good soldier. When you get an opportunity, watch closely to see how regular army men salute. Note that your hat should be on straight, coat completely buttoned up, and hands out of the pockets.

You will learn the rifle salute after you have reached the training camp. In general it is used whenever you are carrying a rifle, except when on guard duty, in which case you ordinarily present arms instead of saluting.

The exact conditions under which the salutes are given need not be repeated in detail here. It is enough for the present to learn you are to salute all commissioned officers (not merely those of your own company or regiment or those with whom you are acquainted), except when you are in a military formation or when you are at drill, work, games or mess. When in formation, you do not salute or come to the position of attention unless an officer speaks to you.

Other Army Courtesies

Never forget that it is not only required of you as a duty, but is also your right and privilege, to salute all commissioned officers and to have your courtesy returned. This statement assumes, of course, that you are in good standing as a soldier. A military prisoner is not permitted to salute.

It is the custom of the army in speaking to an officer to stand at attention and use the word "sir." In all official conversation refer to other soldiers by their titles—for example, "Sergeant Smith" or "Private Brown," not merely "Smith" or "Brown."

"When an officer enters a room where there are several enlisted men, the word 'attention' is given by some one who perceives him, when all rise, uncover, and remain standing at attention, until the officer leaves the room or directs otherwise. Enlisted men at meals stop eating and remain seated at attention." (Infantry Drill Regulations, par. 759.)

Salutes are not exchanged among noncommissioned officers and enlisted men. However, this does not mean that you are not to treat them with respect and courtesy. In a general way show them the same consideration that you would show to men in corresponding positions in civil life.

Since these facts are so well known, it is not surprising that some German attempt to stir up the natives.

Lonesome in Big City. Chicago, Ill., Sept. 19.—Just another case of loneliness in a big city is what Decatur relatives of Miss Josephine Parker said of her suicide in Chicago. Miss Parker had been living with her father for some time and recently her father died. He left her enough property to keep her in comfortable circumstances, but she procured a position. During the week she was busy, but on Sunday her loneliness became too great for her. Her relatives declare that, so far as they know, she was not engaged to marry.

TEUTON SPY SYSTEM HURT

Affected by Disclosure Made by U. S. Government.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Germany's spy system and her international intrigues are being rapidly gored by governmental disclosures.

While a spy system still flourishes in this country, officials declared today that the exposures of the Argentine, Mexican and Philippine plots have made Germany's workers more cautious than ever before.

As for the Philippines, authorities said that the detention of German Vice Consul Conrad Andre, of Cebu, on a charge of trying to incite an insurrection, had proven quite effective.

Critic is Promoter of Anarchy.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—The citizen who insists at this time upon exercising his right of "free speech" in criticizing the government is "a promoter of anarchy." That was the definition given by William Jennings Bryan in an address to the convention of the International Lyceum association. "I don't know how long the war will last," he said, "but I know that the quickest way out is straight through. Any division or discussion now would simply prolong the war and make it more costly in lives and treasure."

COUNCIL WANTS STREET LIGHTS

Makes Request of the Water & Light Board, Committee and City Attorney to See Them

PAVE STREET INTERSECTION
Petition Covered Ninth and Laurel, and Was Referred to the Street Committee

At the regular meeting of the city council, on motion of Alderman Ole C. Anderson, seconded by Alderman W. J. Lyons, the motion carried to request the water and light committee and the city attorney to meet with the water and light board with a view of ascertaining what can be effected in the way of turning on current for the street lights.

All members were present except Alderman Peterson and President F. M. Koop. Vice President Anderson presided.

Rev. W. J. Lowrie, representing the Ministerial Association, requested that lights outside of the business portion be turned on from 7 o'clock P. M. for six nights in the week exclusive of Mondays, during the stay of the evangelists, current to be paid for in advance by the Ministerial Association. On motion of Alderman Hall and Strickler to grant the petition and the clerk to notify the secretary of the water and light board, the motion carried.

To the street committee was referred the petition for paving the intersection of Ninth and Laurel streets and of Laurel between Ninth and Tenth streets.

On motion of Aldermen Gustafson and Lyons, duly carried, there was referred to the city engineer for an estimate of cost of petition for an eight inch lateral sewer in sewer district No. 3, commencing at the district sewer in Southeast Brainerd in the alley between Oak and Pine streets and running east to the end of such alley.

The city engineer's street pay roll amounting to $612.86 was on motion of Aldermen Hall and Stallman allowed and ordered paid.

The proposition of employing a stenographer for the clerk's, engineer's, and chief of police offices was discussed and on motion of Aldermen Lyons and Hall, Miss Jennie Nelson was ordered engaged in such capacity at $20 a month from September 1.

In the matter of repairs to Ninth street Northeast, Aldermen Turcotte and Lyons moved that a small bridge be put in at the place needed and thereafter to lay off the street force and use the city team to the best advantage. This motion carried.

HAROLD KNUTSON CANNOT ATTEND

Congressman From Sixth Writes Fair Secretary that it Will be Impossible to Keep Date

DUTY PLAIN, MUST NOT SHIRK
Thinks he Will be Kept in Washington Six Weeks Longer as Important Measures Still Pend

Congressman Harold Knutson some time ago received and accepted an invitation to attend the Crow Wing county fair and deliver an address on Sept. 21, with the understanding that the arrangement was to be carried out unless important matters pending made it impossible for him to leave his duties at Washington. Mr. Knutson now finds that it will be impossible for him to leave owing to the fact that the revenue bill and several other important matters are still to be disposed of and he has written Secretary Larson to that effect as follows:

Mr. August C. Larson, Secretary, Crow Wing County Fair Association, Pequot, Minnesota.

My dear Mr. Larson:
It is a matter of keen regret that it will not be possible for me to speak at your fair on September 21st. In view of the fact that the Revenue Bill with its many important provisions has not yet been disposed of, I feel that it is my duty, as a representative of the people, not to leave Washington at this time.

We are now engaged in the greatest struggle of all the ages, and whatever may have been our opinion before war was declared, there can be but one possible stand for all Americans to take at this time. Our duty is plain, and we must not shirk it.

Europe is today an armed camp, with two contending forces engaged in deadly contest. On one side the American army, composed of our boys, on the other side the enemy. No man worthy of the name of an American can have any doubt as to which side he belongs. The very future of the Republic is at stake in this contest, and the least that we who are staying at home can do is to back our boys at the front to the limit of our abilities. If necessary, let us deny ourselves many of the things to which we are accustomed in order that they may have all that is necessary to an efficient fighting force.

This is no time for differences. This is a time for concerted action. It is inevitable that at a period like this measures should be taken for the successful prosecution of the war that we would not countenance during peace times; but every bit of legislation now being enacted by Congress is only for the duration of the war and automatically expires upon the conclusion of peace, hence there can be no permanent abridgment of personal liberties.

Now that we are at war we must sink all personal feeling and have single eye to the country's welfare. Upon the conclusion of peace party lines will again be formed. Any legislation necessary to safeguard the liberties of the people will then be enacted, and we will again resume our normal mode of living.

The parents of many of us came to this country to better the condition of themselves and their posterity. Uncle Sam with prodigal hands gave to those who desired them homesteads upon which to found homes, free schools for the education of their children such as are possessed by no other people, also granted liberty of thought and action and a thousand and one other blessings, for all of which we can best show our gratitude by being loyal to the flag of our country, ready to sacrifice our all in behalf of the land of our adoption or birth. We must be ready to go the limit in order that we may secure an honorable peace that will safeguard the future of the Republic.

While we have the blood of many nationalities in our veins, we are all American, one and inseparable, ready to lay down our lives if need be.

Sincerely yours,
HAROLD KNUTSON,
Washington, Sept. 15, 1917.

Frank M. Eddy will be the speaker on Brainerd Day and can be expected to give a ringing address on loyalty and good citizenship. He arrived in Brainerd today and proceeded to the fair grounds this afternoon.

Postmaster, Brainerd, Minn.

My dear Mr. Dunn—I am surely glad to hear of the commendable way in which the detachment is spoken of there. Of course the detachment is broken up now but they have formed a sort of "Veterans of Brainerd" society. Of course I might lay it to the fact that I spent my honeymoon there, but the four months I spent at Brainerd were the best four months I ever had in my life. I shall never forget the splendid way I was treated there by you, Mr. Gemmell, Mr. Parker and many others including Mr. Lincoln and the Brainerd Y. M. C. A., also last but not least, Mrs. Theviet.

I am attached to the Minneapolis Patrol District now and haven't much to do except study. Hope you are in the best of health. Mrs. Mallette sends her regards.

Yours very truly,
IRIE M. MALLETTE,
1st Lt. U. S. A.

P. S.—If you ever have an opportunity to express the above to people I know there I will consider it a favor.

FULL FLEDGED VILLAGE

Trommald Has Council and Officials Including Former Brainerd Man as Village Attorney

Trommald is now a full fledged village, having a council and other officials, and is preparing to rapidly become an important trading center, according to the Miner. The corporation includes all of sections 32, half of 33 and all of 34-47-29; all of 5 and that part of the northwest of 4 not in Mahnomen Lake, in 46-29, making in the neighborhood of twenty-five hundred acres in all.

Included in this townsite are the Ferro, Joan No. 4 and Algoma mines, besides much known ore, which is to be developed at once. The Joan will soon have a four compartment, cement shaft in the southeast of the northwest of 34, and there will be two other shafts in sections 4 and 5. These mines are certain to make a city of Trommald, and the people there are beginning to realize that. They are preparing to become a city gracefully and with due regard to the necessities of the case.

Thomas W. Beare, a former Brainerd young man, has been elected village attorney for the incorporation.

Opportunities For Older Men

Because of the war many positions formerly filled by young men are open to older men. A man's kidneys may make him unfit for hard labor or clear thinking, may make him old before his time, for poisons retained in the system "slows him up" physically and mentally. Foley Kidney Pills tone up weak, disordered kidneys. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Adv.

BILICAN'S FAME SPREADS WESTWARD

Brainerd Cartoonist on Fargo Daily Courier-News in Receipt of Commendatory Letter

FROM CHARLES A. RUSSELL
Latter Associated in Firm McCormick & Russell at Missoula, Praises Canan's Work

The fame of "Billican" Canan, Brainerd boy cartoonist on the Fargo Daily Courier-News is spreading westward and struck the confines of Montana last week, as witness a letter he has received from Charles A. Russell, former Brainerd attorney now associated with W. J. McCormick in a legal firm in Missoula.

Mr. Russell writes:
"I was very much pleased to have a friend hand a copy of the Brainerd Dispatch under date of August 31, containing an article relative to your new connection at Fargo."

"To say that your success is of considerable personal gratification to me is putting it mildly, and here is hoping that notwithstanding your affliction you will get as much out of life as the rest of us."

"Mrs. Russell and the children are in excellent health and it was a God-send to them that we got into this beautiful climate, and while we have no regrets in leaving Brainerd, yet there are a few like yourself whom we remember with kindness."

"For myself will say that I have about all I can attend to as to business I have no complaint."

"I have my young brother here, a reporter on the Daily Missoulian, although he is temporarily home owing to my mother's serious illness of cancer of the stomach, and in fact I expect to be called back to attend her funeral, and should I go back east I will go through Fargo and will endeavor to advise you so you can meet me at the depot if you care to."

"They have two daily papers here that are the best in the state of Montana, and they have no cartoons at all. If I were you I would submit to the 'Missoulian' in care of Mr. Jones or Mr. Hutchins some of your work and anything I can do you can rest assured it will be done."

NO NATIONALITY WAS SINGLED OUT

In the patriotic address given at South Long Lake by Rev. A. Sorenson no nationality was singled out and the appeal was made to all Americans, native or of Scandinavian or other descent, to stand by the president and to follow closely the lines of good citizenship as laid out by him.

RUSSIANS AGAIN SEEM REUNITED

REORGANIZED ARMY MAKES PROGRESS ON RIGA FRONT TAKING NEW POSITIONS.

RADICALS RELAX FIGHT

German Crown Prince's Forces Again Meet With Failure In Two Attempts Against French Positions on Aisne Front.

London, Sept. 19.—Russia, having recovered in a great measure from the effects of recent internal difficulties, is preparing to make a firmer stand against the common enemy. It is announced that the leadership of the Russian armies has been reorganized and that the fruits of reformatory plans in the armies themselves is expected shortly.

Premier Kerensky and the war and marine ministers in his cabinet have gone to Mohilev, Russian great headquarters, to confer with the military leaders.

The Russian northern army, which has made some progress toward driving the Germans back to the Dvina line in the Riga region, has occupied several German positions between Pakoff and Riga. They captured Teuton defenses north of Friedrichstadt, south of Riga. In its official report Berlin makes no mention of activity in this region.

Germans Are Repulsed.

General Stecherbacheff, commander on the Rumanian front, has carried out successfully an offensive movement in the Suchitza valley, northwest of Fokshani. A section of the fortified Austro-German defenses near Varnitza was occupied by the Rumanians. German attacks in the Pantzlu region, to the southwestward were repulsed.

Raid continues on the northern end of the western front, with both the British and the Germans as the aggressors.

The artillery and aerial activity on the western front remains intense.

Crown Prince Meets Failure.

In two efforts against French positions on the Aisne front the German crown prince again has met with failure. Near the Miette river on the Neufchateau road, the Germans reached the French advance lines, only to be thrown out again.

The Italians are still withstanding successfully Austro-Hungarian efforts on the southeastern edge of the Balciza plateau, while the big guns are hurling their monster shells over the battle-torn area of the Carno plateau.

Men for Signal Corps.

Washington, Sept. 18.—To all the army signal corps, the War department may decide to draft an additional 100,000 men. The signal service has asked for a decision on the method to pursue in filling up gaps, existing in the aviation and telegraph branches, and the general staff is expected to answer in a few days. The draft law permits the filling of units which are now below strength, but it is held that an added 100,000 instead of any of the 687,000 of the original draft would be necessary for the signal corps.

20 GENERALS ARE PRISONERS

Held in Petrograd for Connection With Revolution Led by Kornilov.

LATTER DEFENDS SELF

Makes Statement to Commission Appointed to Probe Causes of Revolt —Chief of Cossacks Hands In Resignation.

Petrograd, Sept. 18.—Twenty generals and other officers arrested with General Kornilov, leader of the revolution against the provisional government, are being closely guarded. General Kornilov is imprisoned in a hotel at Mohilev.

Kornilov's fate is in the hands of the provisional government.

Kornilov Makes Defense.

He completed his defense before the special governmental commission appointed to investigate the causes of the general's revolt, submitting a full statement in writing. Examination of other officers involved with the former commander-in-chief in the rebellion was continuing and a full report from the commission, making recommendation as to future action, is expected shortly.

All Russia is anxious to learn what defense the former generalissimo has made to the treason charges against him. The demand on the part of the public that he be executed as the best possible example to all Russia's troops that discipline is to be enforced without fear or favor showed little abatement.

Cossacks' Chief Resigns.

General Kaledines has resigned as hetman of the Don Cossacks.

General Kaledines' arrest has been sought by the provisional government because of his adherence to the Kornilov revolt and instructions to that effect were sent to the grand council of the Don Cossacks, sitting at Novo Teherkask.

The council, however, replied that it was impossible to obey the order because of the necessity of General Kaledines' attendance at the military conferences of the Cossacks in his official capacity as hetman.
